The Noble Prize of Character

Bulletin of Information

The Executive 2000 Institute of Canada has established the Noble Prize of Character Leadership Award, offering national in-course awards to recognize and foster outstanding character development, creative leadership, active citizenship and academic consistency in upper-year post-secondary students. These students include those who, after enrolment in a post-secondary program, find their place and begin to demonstrate these qualities. The Executive 2000 Institute seeks to include students who, prior to being enrolled in a post-secondary program, may not have even considered applying for a merit-based award.

CANDIDATES APPLICATION PROCESS

The Noble Prize of Character Leadership Award Program has been built in partnership with Canada's post-secondary institutions. Participating institutions can contact Executive 2000 Institute to coordinate the nomination process. Each eligible and approved candidate may send their completed application form to Executive 2000 Institute: 255 Duncan Mill Road, Suite 702, Toronto Ontario or call (416) 447-3202.

There will be three phases to the scholarship nomination process.

During Phase 1, Students will submit their applications directly to Executive 2000 Institute. For information on the deadline to submit your application, please visit the Program's website www.exec2000.com or contact Executive 2000 Institute at (416) 447-3202 or email: info@executive2000institute.com

In Phase 3, a selection committee set up by Executive 2000 Institute will independently review all nominations to ensure they meet the selection standards and eligibility criteria of the award. Note that being nominated does not guarantee receiving an award. The committee, as a group, will then rank the files and decide on final award determinations.
